Practice worksheet | Equal groups and sharing

Explaining groups and leftovers

Name: _____ Date: _____

6 practice questions

1. Share five whole counters between two trays. State each share and the leftover.

2. Share ten whole counters between three trays. State each share and the leftover.

3. Share eight whole counters between three trays. State each share and the leftover.

4. Share twelve counters between four trays. Is anything left over?

5. Eleven counters are shared among three trays. Each has two and five remain. Can you share more fairly? Explain.

6. A drawing has four equal groups of three counters and one left over. How many counters altogether?