One-to-one displays

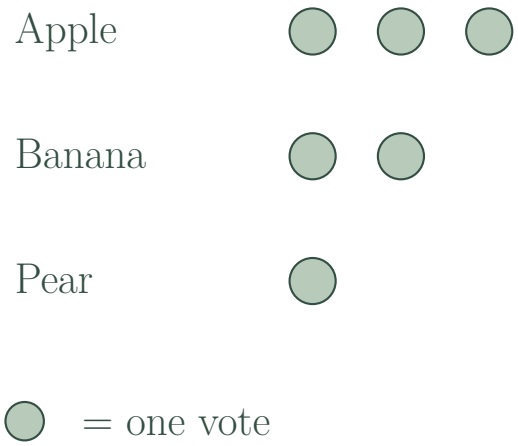

Name: _____ Date: _____

6 practice questions

1. In the fruit display, how many dots are in the apple row?

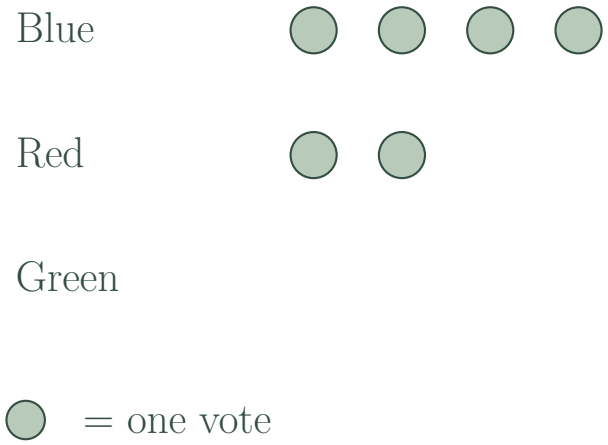

2. In the fruit display, how many votes did pear receive?

3. Draw a display for 2 red choices and 3 blue choices. Let one circle mean one choice.

4. A row shows five pictures. Each picture means one response. How many responses are shown?

5. In the colour display, what does the empty green row mean?

6. Why should dots in different rows be the same size and equally spaced?